

2016 a Year of Awards, Milestones and Opportunities For Artist Anna Lancaster

A wonderful year of opportunity and accomplishments that I never would have imagined. God is good, the work is hard and blessings have opened some wonderful doors for using the gift of painting with others in exciting ways. I am blessed to have work in several out of state group exhibitions in the states of California and Washington. Several awards were presented for some of my entry paintings in plein air competitions. I've had 2 important firsts; acceptance into my 1st out of state juried plein air competition, Plein air Richmond 2016; a prestigious competition to be included in and my first best of show for a plein air competition at Umpqua Plein Air Competition 2016. Here is an overview of what took place this year.
